

BURKE IS A BADMAN.

Believed to Have Been Engaged in More Than the Cronin Murder.

ANOTHER SUSPECT NOW ARRESTED

He Was a Constant Boon Companion of the Winnieper Prisoner.

A NEW WITNESS APPEARS IN THE FIELD

With His Sweater, He Saw the Trio That Carried Away the Body.

The coils are tightening around Martin Burke, now in jail at Winnieper for alleged complicity in the Cronin tragedy.

CHICAGO, June 22.—A new arrest was made this afternoon in the Cronin case.

The prisoner is Michael Walsh, a plumber, who has been working at Joliet. He knew Martin Burke, the Winnieper suspect, in Chicago.

The statement is made that the police have recovered the lost clue to the movements of Patrick Cooney.

CHASING COONEY.

It is given out that the police expect to capture Cooney, possibly within a few hours.

"I have found that he will probably have to account for more than the crime of murdering Dr. Cronin," said the Lieutenant.

"Do you think that he has committed murder?"

"From what I have discovered I should say that he had. But I can give you more particulars in a few days."

This afternoon Frank Woodruff commenced in the Circuit Court for $19,500 damages for libel against the proprietor of a dime museum who has on exhibition a "Burrer" or the horse thief as one of the crookedies in the murder.

A man who claims to be an important witness in the Cronin case turned up last night. He is George E. Brooks, a news agent running one of the roads coming in at the Union depot.

OUT WITH HIS GREL. The story is to the effect that the night of May 4 he was driving in Lakewood with his sweetheart, and that happening along Ash-brook and seeing the car which he had seen in the trunk into the wagon at the Cronin cottage, and that about half an hour later he saw the same man dumping the contents of the trunk into the water and basins.

Brooks told his story to Chief Hubbard, with whom he was detained for over two hours last night. He described to the three men whom he saw, and his description of one is said to fit Burke, the Winnieper prisoner.

VERY BADLY SCARED. "I did," said the Chief, "but the prisoner was so thoroughly scared that I really believe that if I had chosen to pump him, I could have got a complete confession."

"I suppose he did tell you something important," was suggested.

"I don't wish to answer that question," said the Chief. "I will doubtless be called upon to give my evidence in Court."

"Are all the necessary witnesses here?"

"Two others have been called in, as well as the indictment against Burke, and some papers. The Chicago police know exactly what is wanted and they will take the precaution of sending all the evidence required."

"Then you have no doubt about Burke's guilt?"

"None whatever."

Wants the Cronin Evidence. CHICAGO, June 22.—A cable from the solicitor of the London Times was received at the office of Attorney Frank Collier this morning.

It requested him to procure, as soon as possible, a certified copy of the evidence taken by the coroner in the Cronin inquest.

The evidence makes 1100 pages in typewritten print, and the copy, which will be made next week, will cost $200.

Parish Very Wicked City. LONDON, June 22.—The Bishop of Marburg has arrived at the conclusion that a dreadful place and the exhibition had been put on by the priests.

CRUZED BY GRIEF.

A Famous Acrobat Fatally Stabbed by the Father of a Little Girl Who Had Died From the Effects of Rough Treatment While Apprenticed to the Circus.

A MIND FULLY WRECKED.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

The drawing was placed on the parlor mantelpiece, and Currah used to spend hours at a time looking at it and whispering: "My poor murdered darling."

From a frank, genial man, Currah became a morose brooder over his wrongs.

MOTHER'S MADNESS.

Crized by Continued Ill Health She Killed Her Little Child and Committed Suicide—Her Last Pathetic Letter to Her Husband.

UNABLE TO SPEAK OR EAT,

He Yet Manages to Make Known His Wants to His Anxious Relatives.

HE MAY DIE BEFORE MORNING

According to His Physicians, or Suffer for Two or Three Days Longer.

General Simon Cameron is still alive. His faithful family physician says he may live for two or three days yet, but his relatives look for the end at any moment.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

MOUNT JOY, Pa., June 22.—General Cameron is sinking steadily.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

Dr. DeBachman, of Westport, N. Y., the old physician, says that he can hardly live over night.

LIFE-SAVING CHALLENGERS.

How Invention Perils Are Manufactured—The Art of Making True Gems, Harper's Magazine.

POSSIBILITIES IN GLASS.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

How We May Live in Transparent Houses and Cook by the Sun's Heat.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

ONE FIRM TRIES TO MAKE ANOTHER FIRM PAY OVER CONSIDERABLE.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

WHEELS THAT ARE GLASS.

How Invention Perils Are Manufactured—The Art of Making True Gems, Harper's Magazine.

POSSIBILITIES IN GLASS.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

How We May Live in Transparent Houses and Cook by the Sun's Heat.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

Legend tells of the lost invention of "mal-leable glass." Tiberius is said to have discovered a genius who found the secret by beholding him, fearing the innovation would reduce the value of gold.

ONE FIRM TRIES TO MAKE ANOTHER FIRM PAY OVER CONSIDERABLE.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

An argument was heard in Common Pleas No. 2 yesterday in the equity case of Thomas J. Lanning against the Western Realty and Constable William Billings.

MERCY WAS REFUSED

By Judge Stowe in the Case of H. F. Voight, the Bank Wrecker.

A SENTENCE OF SIX YEARS IMPOSED

'Odd Stipulation in the Agreement Between Business Firms.

GENERAL NEWS IN COURT BUILDINGS

Henry F. Voight, the ex-cashier of the defunct Farmers and Merchants' Bank, Southside, was sentenced yesterday to six years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Henry F. Voight, the ex-cashier of the defunct Farmers and Merchants' Bank, Southside, was sentenced yesterday to six years' imprisonment in the penitentiary.

VACANCIES IN THE ARMY.

Secretary Proctor's Plan to Provide Places for West Point Graduates.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W. Smith, both of the Second Infantry.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—In order to make as many vacancies as possible for the recent graduates of West Point, the same time keep the limited retired list up to its full quota, Secretary Proctor today authorized the refund on account of disability of Captains Charles M. West, and Major George W.